The Western Caucus on Women's Issues will be premiering a timely and unique video entitled, 'VOICES OF DIVERSITY: Creating a culture of safety, respect and belonging on campus.'

The premiere will be held on Monday, October 27 at 4 p.m. in Conron Hall, Room 224 in University College at The University of Western Ontario.

The video, produced by Kem Murch Productions Inc., is a collection of stories and insights that examine discrimination, intolerance and safety issues at a Canadian university or college. Members of the news media are invited to attend.
